Creativity in the Face of a Pandemic: Innovative Care Paradigms in Resource-constrained Settings

Sunday, October 10

8:00AM – 12:00PM CDT

This program will highlight lessons U.S. pediatricians can learn from partners in low- and middle-income countries by exploring innovations and adaptations that emerged during the pandemic in settings with limited resources. The program also will include the Section on Global Health oral abstract presentations and awards.
