

VH1357 Section on Hospice and Palliative Medicine Program Grief and Resilience for Patients, Families, and Providers

Sunday, October 10

1:00PM – 3:00PM CDT

The cost of becoming resilient is having lived through suffering. Experts in grief and resilience will share updates and best practices for recognizing grief and promoting resilience among patients, families, and ourselves.

- 1:00PM Welcome and Introduction of Abstract Program
Moderator: Amy Trowbridge, MD, FAAP
- 1:05PM Oral Abstract Presentations
- 1:05PM Supporting Families Considering Clinical Trial: A Digital Resource Featuring Parent and Provider Perspective and Guidance
 - 1:12PM Improving Early Palliative Care Consultation in Solid Tumor Patients
 - 1:19PM Primary Palliative Care Symptom Management Skills: Assessing Pediatric Residents' Comfort and Educational Needs
 - 1:26PM TalkVermont Pediatrics: Learning to Discuss What Matters Most to Patients and Their Families. Development and Implementation of an Interprofessional Communication Course Curriculum
 - 1:33PM Triaging Suffering: Facilitating Peace in a No-Win Situation
- 1:40PM Introduction of Faculty
Moderator: Daniel Mahoney, MD, FAAP
- 1:45PM Grief and Resilience for Patients and Families
Abby Rosenberg, MS, MA, MD, FAAP
- 2:10PM Grief and Resilience for Providers
Rachel Rusch, LCSW, MSW, MA
- 2:35PM Q&A
Moderator: Daniel Mahoney, MD, FAAP
- 2:50PM Closing Remarks/Business Meeting
Presenter: Jennifer Linebarger, MPH, MD, FAAP
- 3:00PM Adjourn