Description:

Artisanal meets accessible at our full-production urban winery, where we pair the tradition and authenticity of the world's most prestigious vineyards with the approachability of our Roaring 20's inspired tasting room with restaurant and full-bar capabilities in the heart of Denver's hottest neighborhood, River North (RiNo) Art District. Our beautifully restored historic building, with 30 ft. exposed timber ceilings, original brick walls, and abundance of natural light, will delight guests and serve as the perfect backdrop for any occasion. Our versatile space can accommodate groups up to 300, but was designed to allow for privacy and more intimate gatherings as well. Our central location is close to I-25 and I-70 and just steps away from the 38th & Blake Street Light Rail station that travels to and from DIA and Union Station.

Description:

The Little India Restaurant & Bar was established in 1998 and since that time has been voted "Best Indian Restaurant" and "Best Lunch Buffet" for 16 consecutive years! This unparalleled success led to the opening of an additional restaurant and the birth of a Denver legend. The Baidwan family has been in Colorado for more than 20 years, and in 1998 decided to open Little India because of their love of cooking. Since then, they have been serving Denver the most authentic fine Indian cuisine and have quickly become an area favorite. The Chefs began their careers in Northern India and use only the freshest meats and ingredients. A friendly, charming staff rounds out the dining experience at Little India Restaurant & Bar.
