

Friday, October 25

8:00AM – 11:00AM

C1008 Innovations in Obesity Prevention, Assessment, and Treatment Forum

The AAP Institute for Healthy Childhood Weight is hosting its annual innovations forum to discuss approaches to prevent, assess, and treat pediatric obesity at the point of care. Areas of emphasis include improving access to and quality of obesity care, increasing physician knowledge, enhancing multidisciplinary care, new technologies, and patient and family engagement.

8:00AM General Poster Session and Breakfast Buffet

Breakfast supported by Nestle Nutrition

8:45AM Welcome/Opening Remarks

Ryan Buchholz, MD, FAAP, Chair, Innovations Forum Planning Committee

Panel Discussion: Community and Clinic Linkages for Obesity Management

9:00AM Results of the Healthy Weight and Your Child Collaborative: A National Pilot to Improve Obesity-related Primary Care and Foster Clinic-Community Linkages for Pediatric Weight Management

Using Geo-mapping Technology to assess Obesity and Food Insecurity in Detroit

9:30AM Physical Activity Break

Panel Discussion: Longitudinal Data and Implications for Obesity Screening and Management

9:40AM Arkansas's 10 Year Longitudinal Assessment of Obesity and Associated Conditions in Medicaid

Comparing Clinical Results of the Childhood Obesity in Primary Care Collaborative by Practice Characteristics: Possible Implications for Scaling

10:10AM Physical Activity Break

Panel Discussion: Interesting Research Findings and Associated Implications for Care

10:20AM To Z or Not to Z (BMI)? Measuring Effectiveness of Child Obesity Interventions: Implications for Pediatricians

Differences Between Mothers' and Fathers' Perception of Infant Weight Status and Opinions Regarding Childhood Obesity

10:50AM Closing Remarks

11:00AM Adjourn