

Monday, October 28

8:00AM – 12:00PM

H4021 Joint Program: Section on Bioethics and Section on Obesity

Ethical Challenges in the Care of Children With Obesity

Parents, patients, and pediatricians frequently struggle to help children affected by obesity experience improved health. This program will explore ethical issues that arise in the treatment of children struggling with obesity.

8:00AM	Welcome/Announcements Moderator: Kyle Brothers, MD, PhD, FAAP
8:10AM	William G. Bartholome Award for Ethical Excellence Presenter: Mark Mercurio, MD, MA, FAAP Recipient: Aviva Katz, MD, FAAP (posthumous) Accepted by Daniel Weiner, MD, FAAP
8:15AM	Bartholome Award Lecture
8:45AM	Introduction of Topic and Faculty Moderator: Stephanie Walsh, MD, FAAP
8:50AM	Keynote Address Janet Childerhose, PhD
10:00AM	Break
10:15AM	Panel Case Discussion Janet Childerhose, PhD; Stephen Pont, MD, MPH, FAAP Moderator: Kyle Brothers, MD, PhD, FAAP
11:45AM	Panelist Closing Remarks
12:00PM	Adjourn