

H2605 Section on Uniformed Services Program

Saturday, October 3
3:00PM – 6:20PM CDT

This session will highlight topics relevant to military pediatricians, including management of patients with sickle cell trait, a review of the unique health and mental health needs of military children, and skills-building to optimize physician resilience.

- 3:00PM Welcome and Overview of the Section
COL Catherine Kimball-Eayrs, MD, FAAP
- 3:10PM Ogden Bruton Lectureship: Rekindling the Joy in Medicine
COL Rechell Rodriguez, MD, FACP, USAF (Ret)
- 3:45PM Q&A
Kim Smith-Whitley, MD
- 3:50PM Sickle Cell Trait and Implications for Military Families
Kim Smith-Whitley, MD
- 4:25PM Q&A
- 4:30PM Putting It in Context: A Review of the Health and Mental Health Needs of Children in US Military Families
CAPT Chadley Huebner, MD, MPH, FAAP, USN
- 5:05PM Q&A
- 5:10PM Break

Service Breakouts

- 5:20PM Army, Navy, Air Force Consultant Breakouts
- 6:20PM Adjourn