

H3802 Council on Communications and Media Program

Human Rights, Youth Policing, and Advocacy: Making the Message Resonate

Sunday, October 4
3:00PM - 4:30PM CDT

Communicating the importance of human rights issues to legislators and the public through media takes special skill. This session will look at youth policing in various settings as case studies from which participants will learn background on the issues and how to communicate and elevate this issue in their communities.

- |        |   |
|--------|---|
| 3:00PM | Welcome and Award PresentationModerator: Nusheen Ameenuddin, MD, MPH, FAAPPresentation of 2020 AAP COCM Holroyd-Sherry Award to Megan Moreno, MD, MPH, MEd, FAAP |
| 3:10PM | Criminalization of Native American Youth Victims of Human TraffickingShaquita Bell, MD, FAAP  |
| 3:40PM | Issues and Strategies to Overcome Discriminatory Practices in School-Based DisciplineJanna Gewirtz O'Brien, MD, FAAP  |
| 4:10PM | Q&amp;A  |
| 4:30PM | Adjourn  |