

H4403 Joint Program: Council on Child Abuse and Neglect and Section on Minority Health, Equity, and Inclusion

Taking a Time Out: Cultural Approaches to Discipline

Monday, October 5
1:00PM – 4:00PM CDT

The AAP does not support physical discipline as an effective means to control behavior. This program will review the historical, cultural, and religious roots of corporal punishment and its effects. Attendees will discuss their views of discipline, and faculty will provide tools for effective anticipatory guidance around discipline.

1:00PM	Welcome and Announcements Award for Outstanding Service to Maltreated Children Best Abstract Award Chairperson: Suzanne Haney, MD, FAAP Moderator: Norrell Atkinson, MD, FAAP
1:15PM	Spare the Rod: Historical, Cultural, and Religious Roots of Physical Punishment in the US Elizabeth Gershoff, PhD
1:45PM	Injuries Seen and Unseen: The Risk of Harm From Spanking to Physical Abuse Allison Jackson, MD, MPH, FAAP
2:15PM	Nurturing Through Discipline: Strategies for Anticipatory Guidance on Discipline Anu Partap, MD, MPH, FAAP
2:45PM	Q&amp;A Panel Discussion
4:00PM	Adjourn