

COPYRIGHT INFORMATION: PLEASE HELP US PROTECT YOU

Recording/distributing the content of presentations increase the risk that you will be accused of copyright infringement.

- Please ensure that you write/create everything that you display or include in the content of your presentations.
- Do not include any images (eg, graphs, tables, cartoons, etc.) that are created or published by third parties, unless you have permission from the publisher.

We do not want you to be sued for copyright infringement. Due to the virtual/enduring format of this educational activity, we need to be extra cautious. These rules are here to protect you. Thank you for your understanding.

Additional information about copyrights, HIPAA, and other aspects of developing AAP CME is included in the links below.

Development of Presentation Material
National Conference & Exhibition AAP Copyright Guidance
Guidelines for Addressing Intellectual Property
Policy on Allegations of Plagiarism